GOLDEN HORSESHOE UNDIMMED AT OPERA

Metropolitan's Tenth Season Opens With Brilliant Reception of "Aida."

RAPTURES OVER CARUSO

Audience Joins in Singing National Anthem at Close of Second Act.

The tenth season of opera under the direction of Giulio Gatti-Casassa began at the Metropolitan Opera House last evening. The gloom of the war cloud had plainly not yet reached the golden horseshoe. The brilliancy of opera's opening night was undimmed, and that too in white of the fact that no less important a social function than the opening of the horse show was in competition with it.

ion with it.

Perhaps Ward McAllister would never have permitted these two events to come a good technic she might make much of into conflict in the days when he was the such a part as Aida, for she has the apmajor domo of his set. But his "Four pearance and is not devoid of temperaturd the support of the set of the such a part as Aida, for she has the apmajor domo of his set. But his "Four pearance and is not devoid of temperaturd the support of the s major domo of his set. But his "Four Hundred" has expanded into a small army. Society is vastly larger than it was in the days when he found it. There is quite enough now to fit out both horse show and opera openings with throngs of people distinguished in the ceremonial life of the city. This will be easily understood after a look over the lists of those present at the two affairs.

The opera offered for consideration and general joy was Verdi's "Aida," which in recent years has assumed a position of prime importance in the pub-ile favor. Several reasons might be given for Mr. Gatti-Casassa's selection, but the chief one was undoubtedly the opportunity for restoring Mr. Caruso to opportunity for reserving are. Catual the public eye and ear in one of his most successful roles. Since the time when operagoers decided that they would rather hear the tenor in declamatory and heroic roles than in those of tender expression his Rhadames has pleased Words Rarely Heard.

Therefore the impresario caused the supreme tenor to reintroduce himself with the highly pregnant words, "La Iside consultasti?" Which words very few operagoers have ever heard him sing, since they are delivered within one minute after the rise of the curtain. In addition to the lure of Mr. Caruso's Rhadames "Alda" offers much glitter ing spectacle. Dances, processions an Amato as Amonasro, Mr. Mardonos as the High Priest and Mr. Ruyadael as the Ring were all applicated rapturously Roberto Moranzoni, newly added to the conducting forces of the theatre, was also welcomed with crows of delight. It was quite fitting that there was such a gathering. The boxes were all filled and the orchestra presented a brilliant appearance. The Opera Club was out in force, occupyalso delight. It is the left of the house.

Bullock.

Funeral services at Crescent Avenue
Presbyterian Church, Plainfield, N. J.,
Tuesday, November 13, at 2:30 P. M.
IOHNSON.—Sarah M., widow of Archdeacon George D. Johnson, D. D., in her seventy-seventh year, at New Brighton, Staten Island, November 12.

Guesta, Mrs. Jay Gould, Miss Kathering, Guesta, Mrs. Jay Guesta, Mrs. Jay Guesta, Mrs. Jay Guesta, Miss Mary McNeal Dilworth and Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, Mrs. Alvin W. Krech, Mr

law, Samuel H. Evins, 112 Stuyvesant LANGAN.—At Keyport, N. J., on Novem-ber 12, 1917, George E. Langan, son of ber 12, 1917, George E. Langan, son of the late Patrick and Mary Langan and brother of the Rev. James L. Langan ef Brooklyn, N. Y., and the Rev. Franris X. Langan of Far Hills, N. J., in his fifty sixth year. his fifty-sixth year. Funeral from 188 First street on Thurs-day, November 18, at 9 A. M.; thence to St. Joseph's Church, where a solem: mass of requiem will be offered at 19 A. M. Interment St. Joseph's Ceme-tery, Keyport, N. J. Masses requested. MATHEY—At his residence, 5 Little Clove road Stapleton, Staten Island, on No vember 12, Fritz Henry Mathey, in his uneral notice later. NELSON -S. P., on Sunday, November 11, at Caledonian Hospital, Brooklyn, in Berrices at his late residence, 1214 Coriciyou road, Brooklyn, Tuesday eve-ning, 8 o'clock. Funeral private. SATTERLEE.—On Monday, November 12,

17. at his residence, 15A West Sev enty-third street, after a lingering ill-ness Francis Le Roy Satteries, M. D. son of the late George Crary Satteries and Mrs. William E. Glyn and Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Johnson.

1. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butand Mary Le Roy Livingston, in the Seventy-first year of his age.
Fineral services will be held on Wednes-day, November 14, at Grace Church.

orner of Broadway and Tenth street. VAN NEST Suddenly, at East Orange, M. November 10, Mary Scholey, daughter of the late John R. and ler, Miss Sarah Schuyler Butter and Mrs.

Dulany Howland.
7. The Astor box—Occupied by Mrs.
Huntington and Mrs. Charles H. Senff.
17. Mrs. William D. Sloan—Guests.
Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly and Mr.
and Mrs. James A. Burden.
13. Miss Fanny L. Johnson—Guesta,
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts Hillhouse.
George Henry Warren and E. Coster
Wilmerding. Josephine Westerveit on Nest.
Fineral services at her late residence.
19 North Walnut street, Tuesday morning, November 18, at 11 o'clock. WESNER-Ella. Guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Duer Irving, Miss Maria de Barril, Andrea de Segu-rola and A. Morris Hagby. 30. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Miss Flora Payne Whitney and Mrs. Payne SNER -Ella, Services "THE PU-NERVI, CHURCH." B'way, 66th airest c'rank Campbell's), Wednesday, 19 c'alock, Auspices Actors Fund. UNDERTAKEES.

lam Greenough.

6. Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hatch—Guests, Miss Dorothy Bigelow and Thomas J. Bildell.

Our Canadian

Trading Posts

Revillon

Frenes

altogether—but the audience did not care. It was Caruso, That's all. Miss Musio was a mediocre Atda. She esqueness to Opening.

A NOTABLE GATHERING.

tinius—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crane of Washington, D. C.; Miss Isabel Stettinius and M. Verge of the Wilmerding. 11. Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren

8 th A. FRANK CAMPBELL Sets St. Whitney. 24. Robert W. Gogles-Guesta, Mrs.

SILVER FOX

51. Mr. and Mrs. W. Dixon Ellis—tume of dark blue chiffon and satin, luests, Mr. and Mrs. Gage E. Tarbell diamond ornaments, Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jc.—Cosmon D. Rockefeller, Jc.—Cosmon

41. Miss Julia Chester Wells—Guesta, pale blue satin brocade, ornaments of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dalliba Dutton, Mrs. diamonds.
William H. Bliss, Bayard Haisted and Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton—Cos-

Cass Gilbert,
52. Austin B. Fletcher—Guesta, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison and Mrs. John De Witt Warner.
42. Joseph Ritter—Guesta, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fletcher, Mrs. M. C. Sluts, Miss Lillian Sluts and J. Gilmore Costume of pale blue brocade vetled with white chiffon.

and Mrs. Charles E. Danforth,
53. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Bayles
—Guests, Mrs. Van Rensselaer Johnson.
Miss Van Rensselaer, Gen. R. Radiguet of France and William Williams.

The Mayor-elect, Mrs. Hylan and Miss Hylan were in box 28, 40. Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Van Cortlandt Hamilton Guests, Mr. and Mrs. of Oliver J. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tilden Mattox, Sascha Votichenko and Count

48. Mme. Frances Alda—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Dr. Norman Ditmar, Miss Evans and Arthur Will-46. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hurd—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Land-street and Mrs. Albert Young.

Stell Bores.

C. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott Gerrish -Guests, Miss Dorothy Manice and

ter of tone and with considerable attention to the lovely details of Verdi's acore. The acenery, coatumes and other accessories were those of previous seasons. There were some new light effects, attributable probably to Richard Ordynsky, the new stage manager.

After the second act the national anthem was sung. Miss Musio, Mme. Matzenauer, Mr. Caruso and Mr. Amato were the principals, while Mr. Ruysdael held sloft a large United States flag, and all the flags of the Allies were borne by choristers. The refrain of the anthem Henry Preble.
F. Mrs. E. Juch Wellman and Mrs.
John R. Morran.
H. Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bulkley— Guests, Mrs. Robert C. Black and Miss

Guests, Mrs. Robert C. Black and Miss naments of dis Naments of Mrs. Bay Bulkley.

V. Mr. and Mrs. John Warne Herbert

—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Dunn and Eleanor Dunn,

J. Mrs. A. F. Lauterbach, Miss Flora Werner and Edward Werner.

E. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Healy Ditson Mrs. Enrico Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. For-choristers. The refrain of the anthem was repeated by the entire chorus, with orchestra and brass band, many of the audience joining in the singing. There B. Mr. and Mrs. George Scott Graham Guests, Mrs. Harry P. Williams and Major Daniel M. Coffin of the Royal

Field Artillery. was prolonged applause after this patri-

Others in the Audience. Among others in the orchestra stalls and other parts of the house were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilmerding Payne, Mrs. A. Bradhurst Field, Miss Frances P. Field, T. Pearsail Field, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Edey, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Lovett, Mrs. William P. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Chadbourne, Jr., Mrs. Frederic H. Betts, Mrs. Russell H. Hoadley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. Durant Chesver. esquences to Opening.

Rhaddmes "Aida" offers much glittering spectacle. Dances, processions and solemn religious ceremonials all go to fill the eye with color and movement. Perhaps, too there might have been something instructive in the opera for those who cared to see it. War, pariotism, victory and triumph, ruined by the conquest of loyalty by love of womanities a significant story. Rhadames—it is a significant story. Rhadames—traditore!"—was condemned to death by imprisonment in a suffocating cell, and as it did not happen to be in Atlanta he did not get out.

But probably not even the smug and secure anti-Americans in the house there were also in the house members dought of that. At any rate there were also in the house members of the British mission and members of the British Mrs. Raham Mrs. Robert H. McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. S. Breck was su Vernon C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Alexan-der J. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rath-bone Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hardenbergh, Mr. and Mrs. Walker D. conducting forces of the theatre, was an evening of great gladness. The good old opera was going again in familiar form.

Caruso—That's All.

According to the news records Mr. Caruso gave much delight to Buenos Ayres in the winter (summer up here) season there. He seemed to give just as much delight to the audience last night. Those who love him best must have felt sad. He probably never sang ard M. Thomas and Ford Huntington.

The Opera Club was out in force, occupy-lines, description of the force, occupy-lines, description. Hardenbergh, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Winthrep, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Winthrep, Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Doench, Mrs. E. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. John Dyneley Prince, Mrs. McCoon, Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCo as much delight to the audience last as might. Those who love him best much have felt sad. He probably never sang "Celeste Aida" quite so badly before. Indeed throughout the evening his sing ing was marked by violence of style and an almost complete absence of finesse. It is not an almost complete absence of finesse. It is viole sounded worn and tired, and Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Hare. 26. Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Hare. 26. Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross Proctor—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross Proctor—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. Watter Mrs. William F. Stafford, Miss Anne V. Prime, Dr. Emanuel De Marnay Baruch, and Mrs. Authur Buel. 25. Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross Proctor—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Austen Gray, Mrs. Ambross Monell, Ashbel H. Barney and Capt. Syce.

15. Mr. and Mrs. Austen Gray, Mrs. Ambross Monell, Ashbel H. Barney and Capt. Syce.

15. Mr. and Mrs. Austen Gray, Mrs. Ambross Monell, Ashbel H. Barney and Capt. Syce.

15. Mr. and Mrs. Austen Gray, Mrs. Ambross Monell, Ashbel H. Barney and Capt. Syce.

15. Mr. and Mrs. Austen Gray, Mrs. Ambross Mrs. Is Mrs. Song Lake, Grace Ansiev, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irving Badger, to Raymond Peckham Holden, non of Mrs. Edwin B, Helden of New York. 1083—Capt. Ambross Mrs. Lewis Nizon.

16. Mrs. Bantey November 10, 1917, Noel Jennett Boulock.

17. And Mrs. Auster Gray, Mrs. Ambross Monell, Ashbel H. Barney and Capt. Syce.

18. Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew G. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irving Badger, Is Mrs. and Mrs. Mercelith Hare.

19. Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew G. Campbell, Mrs. and Mrs. Mrs. Belden of New York. Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew G. Campbell.

19. Mrs. and Mrs.

descon George D. Johnson. D. D., in her seventy-seventh year. at New Brighton, Staten Island, November 12, 1317.

Superal at the residence of her son-in Tuneral at the residence of her son-in Superal at the residence of her son-in Super Alexander Phillips.

28. Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pratt—law, Samuel H. Evins, 112 Stuyvesant place, New Brighton, Wednesday, November 14, at 11 A. M.

GAN—At Keyport, N. J., on November 12, 1917, George E. Langan, son of law of the control of th of Foster Thomson, Harry Rowe Shelly, Mac-Ferrars H. Tows, Robert S. Bassett, Frederick E. Haight, Benjamin W. Keen, Herbert L. Dillon, George L. Du-Keen, Herbert L. Dillon, George L. Dilval, Capt. Warren C. Beach, Lewis F. Doyle, Aigernon S. Bell, Dr. F. H. Bosworth, Eugene M. MacDonald, Cornelius F. Fox. J. Alexander Hayden, Thomas D. Leonard, Charles H. Mapes, William French mission.

34. Mrs. Haggin—Guests. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Kountze, Mrs. Louns-Mrs. Augustus Kountze, Mrs. Lounsbery Perry, Ogden Hammond and Worthington Whitehouse.

32. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady—
Guests, Mrs. Enrico Conill of Havana, Cuba; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Ryan and John Morron.

B. Haskell, Clifford B. Harmon, Henry
I. Maxwell, James F. Pierce, J. Egmont
Schermerhorn, Aifred T. Stanley,
Charles S. Thorne, Hunter Wykes,
Harold W. Lahey, James W. Whelan,
Rutherford H. Towner, Henry W. Mer-Cuba; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Ryan and John Morron.

33. Mr. and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson—
Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aldrich and Mrs. M. Orms Wilson, Jr.

27. Mrs. John T. Pratt—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Choate, Mrs. J. R. Swan and Miss Dixon.

20. Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carnegle Phipps.

31. Mrs Vanderbilt's box—Occupied by Mrs. and Mrs. F. Grand D'Hauteville, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Glyn and Mr. and Mrs. William E. Glyn and Mr. and R. Rogers. Eugene E. sett, John H. Reynolds, Alfred T. Stan-ley, Richard R. Rogers, Eugene E. Durkee, Louis B. Hasbrouck, Richard A. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murray But Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murray But Strong, H. Mott Brennan, Warren S.
 Bartlett, Neville G. Higham, Edward Dulany Howland.

P. York and J. Frederick Eagle.

BRILLIANT COSTUMES.

Prevailing Colors Were White, Pink and Silver.

There was the usual brilliant display of costumes ami jewels in the partered boxes and orchestra stalls. The prevail-ing colors were white, pink and silver, Mrs. Ogden Mills were a costume of white brocade and ornaments of diamonds and pearls.

Mrs. Edmund L. Baylies—Costume of pink satin, coronet of diamonds Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney-Costume

Whitney Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Willlam Greenough.

5. Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hatch—Guests,
Miss Dorothy Bigelow and Thomas J. white satin brocade, diamond ornaments

Miss Dorothy Bigelow and Thomas J.

Sildeli.

10. George F. Baker—Guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. Goadby Loew, Miss Barbara Loew and Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr.

25. Mr. and Mrs. W. Pierson Hamilton —Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Drake and Major Ian Hay Beith and Mrs. Beith of London.

Grand Tier Boxes.

51. Mr. and Mrs. W. Dixon Ellis—

51. Mr. and Mrs. W. Dixon Ellis—

52. Miss Flora Whitney—White satin and chiffon, Mrs. H. McKay Twombly—Costume of diamonds.

Mrs. James A. Burden—Costume of gold brocade, necknee of diamonds.

Mrs. Jay Gould—Costume of white satin and chiffon, diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler—Costume of dark blue chiffon and satin, tree of dark blue chiffon and satin, and chiffon, diamond ornaments.

Guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gage E. Tarbell diamond ornaments.

and Mrs. Olin D. Gray.

37. Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith—tume of pale yellow satin, ornaments of Guests, Miss Ethel Smith and Wilfred diamonds and pearls.

Mrs. Charles H. Senff—Costume of Mrs. Charles H. Se

Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton-

Miss Lillian Slutz and J. Gilmore chiffon.

Fletcher.

39. Mrs. Anderson T. Herd—Guests, ciel blue chiffon and satin, ornaments of diamonds.

diamonds.

black lace.
Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, Jr., costu-brick red velvet, ornaments of diam

Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps, costume f pale pink satin and chiffon. Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison, costume of Mrs. Warner M. Leeds, costume pink satin and chiffon trimined with silver lace, necklace of diamonds.

Mrs. R. A. C. Smith, costume of black satin and lace, ornaments of pearls. Mrs. Oilver Harriman, costume of pale blue satin and chiffon, ornaments of diacolored velvet with touches pink satin trimmed with jetted lace, or-naments of diamonds and pearls.

Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady—Costume of Nile green velvet, ornaments of pearls

Mrs. John D. Ryan-Costume of black brocade and lace, diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas—Costume of white satin and chiffon, ornaments of pearls.

Mrs. W. Goadby Loew—Costume black velvet with touches of white.

Mrs. J. Lee Tailer—Costume of gold brocade, ornaments of pearls and dia-monds.

Mrs. John Shillito Rogers—Costume of turquoise blue velvet, diamond orna-ments. Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson—Costume of gray satin and chiffon. Mrs. Ian Beith—Costume of pale pink satin brocade veiled with white chiffe

FRENCH ORGANIST GIVES A RECITAL

Joseph Bonnet Is Heard in Hach's violin chaconne, Beethoven's E-major sonata, opus 109, and five Chopin preludes. Aside from some infrequent extravagances in the employment of the pedal, Miss Berliner's playing was marked by clarity and balance. Her finger work was excellent and her employment of touch both musical arm continent. Her reading of the Beethoven sonata was one of genuine appreciation and had a distinctly published plan. Above all, it paid respect to the printed page, and every note in the variations was heard.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

It has been decided to resume the Fou It has been decided to resume the Four Junior Dances, which proved successful last winter, and they will be held at the Plaza on November 29, December 21, February 8 and April 5. The patronesses are Mrs. Daniel F. Kellogg. Mrs. J. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. Charles M. Clark, Mrs. Herbert Dean, Mrs. Edward Dwight, Mrs. Parker D. Handy, Mrs. Charles S. Haight, Mrs. D. Hunter McAlpin and Mrs. E. Mortimer Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leeter Lewis of Shore Drive, Douglas Manor, have issued invitations for the wedding on Novem-ber 24 of their daughter. Miss Marjoris Lewis, to Henry Emerson Comings of New York. Miss Lewis is a graduate of Smith College. Mr. Comings is a of Smith College. Mr. Comings is graduate of Oxford University, England

Grench BOOKS Also books in other foreign languages The Department invites correspondence B.P.DUTTON &CO. MI 5th Ave

JOHN DREW REVIVES THOUSANDS HONOR 'THE GAY LORD QUEX'

Delightful Presentation

COMEDY POTENT AS EVER ORPHANS PAY TRIBUTE

Actor Does the Best Work in Years and Manicurist's Part Also a Pleasure.

of Pinero's Play.

"The Gay Lord Quex"-At the Forty-eighth Street Theatre.

The Marquis of Quez John Drew Bir Chichester Frayne. Geo. Pauncefort Capt. Bastling. Leonard Willey Valma. Rexford Kendrick The Duchess of Streed. Irby Marshall Mrs. Jack Eden. Leuise Drew Muriel. Violet Kemble-Cooper Sophy Fulgarney. Margaret Illington

When does a comedy become an old comedy? It may be old within ten minutes after it has been acted or even before its first act is fairly finished. But to be an old comedy implies such consecration as pertains to "The School for Bcandal" or "She Stoops to Conquer." Yet not since their time has another succeeded to this high dramatic estate. Once it seemed as if "London Assurance" Miss Madeleine Liebert, costume of might be destined for these honors. But it has now turned out to be only an old play. Will the contemporaneous theatre

These questions were suggested last night by the welcome and artistic revival of Pinero's "The Gay Lord Quex" which was made by John D. Williams at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre. There is in this finely worked out play of the English dramatist much to entitle it to Mrs. Enrice Conill-Costume of gold survival. Then it has already lived nearly twenty years, for it was so long ago as that that John Hare acted the play at the Criterion Theatre in London. The author had designed the plece for Irene Van Brugh, who played the manicure, but it was to Mr. Hare that it was given to play the title rele.

The Younger Hero.

It may be that Mr. Drew, who inevitably was compelled to portray a younger lord than his predecessor, has left of the altar. not the natural emotional range of the Englishman. But he is surely his peer churchmen to assist in the ceremonies. All of the Catholic benevolent, fraternal All of the Catholic benevolent, fraternal shall not become the husband of the sung.

Msr. Lavelle, who had administered the last rites, delivered the eulogy. In

Ballroom of Hotel

Astor.

Joseph Bonnet, the distinguished French organist, gave yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the Hotel audience last night. There was no lack in the first of five recitais illustrating the history of organ nusic from the early composers to the present time.

Mr. Bonnet, who is appearing here under the auspices of the French-American der the auspices of the French-American in the ballroom of the French-American der the auspices of the French-American der the auspices of the French-American in the ballroom of the French-American der the auspices of the French-American der the distinguished and the fine ease, which we lease, which were they less accepted as a matter of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came for jumple of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came few who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came few who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration which came few who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration where they less accepted as a matter of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration where they less accepted as a matter of course by our public would arouse new who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspiration where they less accepted there two days of the few who have not felt the influence, benefices and inspir se Shillito, Mrs. Edward G. Tinker, rs. John H. Bradford, Miss Phippr, Mr. and students of the organ. Bach's fand Mrs. & R. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Mclivain.

Among others present were Mr and frs. Walter H. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Piece Peter Stanley Mortimer, Bruce Price Peter Stanley Mrs. And Mrs. Fred Housman, Mrs. Manuel Riends, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Housman, Mrs. Charles H. Guye, Miss Charlotte Guye, Mrs. and Mrs. Theodore N. Vall, Mrs. Acharles H. Truax, Mrs. P. Henry Dugro Prederick Jewett Dieter, Percy Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner and Mrs. James B. Regan.

Ju the Opera Club this year has its a new departure in instrumental recitals in the omplies how see Henry D. Cooper, Prederic Potts Moore, William W. Skiddy, Ernest F. Ayrauit, Mrs. W. Skiddy, Ernest F. Ayrauit, Mrs. P. Lanoy, Mrs. Potternal Busoni involution of the Skiddy, Ernest F. Ayrauit, Mrs. Science of the organ. Bach's fan delive for mine served for the final number, and the provided out of his store of worldly posterious delivers were cated by Miss Beaumont and Miss Drew. Mrs. Williams had surrounded these of the success of the revival were extended to the success of the revival that taste and liberality of the revival that taste and liberality of the revival that taste and liberality of the success of the revival that taste and liberality of the caused the audience that his success of the caused the audience that his success of the revival that taste and liberality of the revival that taste and liberality of the revival that taste a

JOHN D. CRIMMINS

Margaret Illington Co-Star in St. Patrick's Cathedral Is Crowded When Funeral Services Are Held.

Mgr. Lavelle Eulogizes Dece-

John D. Crimmins was borne from the family residence at 40 East Sixty-eighth street to St. Patrick's Cathedral, where Mgr. Lavelle, in the presence of a notable gathering, said in a few simple words the things that the vast assem-blage thought of a man who modestly business and religious life of the city.

It was not so much in the solemn. formal and imposing array of church-men and the calm dignity of the service that the last tribute to Mr. Crimmins had its expression. The real tribute was probably better typified by the 100 little fellows who came from the Catholic Orphan Asylum in token of the fact that the homeless had lost a friend. As the casket was taken into the Cathedral the chimes intoned a dirge. From distant points there came the slow vibrations from many bells upon other had been a parishioner, and very few other New Yorkers were so thoroughly white.

Mrs. Cyril Hatch, costume of black supply an old comedy to posterity? And other New Yorkers were so thoroughly identified with its work as he had been a parishioner, and very few other New Yorkers were so thoroughly identified with its work as he had been. So it was no wonder that every seat.

Miss Julia Chester Wells—Costume of These questions were suggested last was taken and that the side aimles were packed as the procession moved to the high altar. In the great gathering were men and women from all churches and from all parties.

Imposing Processional.

The processional was imposing. Pifty priests from the various churches of New York marched slowly behind the Right Rev. Joseph F. Mooney, V. G., celebrant of the mass; the Rev. J. G. Spenca, O. P., deacon; the Rev. D. J. O'Connor, sub-deacon, and the Rev. Henry F. Hammer, master of cere-

When the casket, upon which the When the casket, upon which the Papal decoration of the Knights of St. Gregory rested, had been placed, Cardinal Farley, accompanied by the Rev. Thomas G. Carroll, his master of ceremonies, and other dignitaries of the church, came within the chancel, where the Cardinal occupied to the church. the Cardinal occupied the throne at the

in finish and there could have been nothing more artistic than his acting of the famous scene of atruggle with the manicure, who determines that this more or less reformed man of the world of the large transfer of the world as the body was taken from the cathedral "Lead, Kindly Light" was supported to the cathedral "Light" was supported to the cathedral "Light" was supported to the cathedral "Light" was supported to the cathedral shall not become the husband advisory of the last rites, delivered the eulogy. In the last rites, delivered the eulogy. In the said in part:

"In this year congregation assembled the funds of the fund

Mr. Bonnet gave a masterly performance of the works in hand. He played on an instrument favorable for his purposes. His audience was a very appreciative one and included many organists and students of the organ. Bach's fantasia and fugue in G minor served for the final number, and it received a delivery serve superh in sixle at the hands of the many organists. The Rev. R. Z. REPLOGLE.

THE REV. R. Z. REPLOGLE.

Served to the organizations, but his greatest treasure to little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to leave the looked as with equal calm upon the spiritual as well as the material, and for thirty spars it was a source of joy for him to provide distinct the institution conducted by the late of the institution conducted by the little of essential interest in the other organizations, but his greatest treasure to looked as with equal calm upon the spiritual as well as the material, and for thirty was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth century English was a source of joy for him to gallery of eighteenth cen

Today

The active pailbearers were: Frederic C. Penfield, Theodore Hetzler, A. S. Fris-sell, Joseph P. Day, John Whalen, John C. O'Keefe, Stephen Farrelly, John D. Ryan, Harry A. Kahler, Martin J. Keogh, Shane Leslie and G. G. Haven, Jr. In the pews reserved for the family were: Mrs. Crimmins Jennings, John D. Crimmins, Jr., Miss Mary C. Crimmins, Lieut-Col. Martin L. Crimmins, Mr, and Mrs. Thomas Crimmins, Mrs. Frederick E. Childs, Master Frederick R. Childs, Miss Mercedes Crimmins, Me and Mrs. dent—Cardinal Farley Attends Obsequies. tends Obsequies. Cyril Crimmins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien. Gould Jennings, Jr., Martin Lalor Crimmins, Jr., John D. Crimmins, 3d. Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Haggerty, Peter Laior, Miss Julia Laior, Martin Lalor. Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Burke, Mrs. Costello, Daniel J. Dowdney, Mrs. Maud Cherry, Mrs. Charles Laior and Mrs. Richard Charles Lalor and Mr. and Mrs. Richard bin, Adrian Iselin, Jr., Dr. Francis J. Quinlan, Dr. Thomas F. McParlan, Ber-nard Coleman, Edmond G. Hurley, John B. Manning and Henry Heide.

Costello.

The body was conveyed to Corpus Christi Monastery, at Lafayette avenue and Hunt's Point road. The Bronx, and laid beside that of his wife.

judges, clerks of courts and men prominent in politics, attended the funeral of Heidelberg, and he also took a course in Michael F. Tobin yesterday at St. Ignatius Church. Mr. Tobin was for more was sent to Chemnitz as Consul, and ten than twenty years a cierk of the Su-preme Court. He leaves the widow and two children.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

fer of 15 East Thirty-sixth street have the Alexander and Rhinelander families that the Alexander and Rhinelander families have been identified with social New York for generations. Miss Alexander of woman suffrage. He is survived by was introduced here two years ago. She is a niece of Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Ed. Ryan, who will officiate at the funeral survives in the Course of St. John the is the eldest son of Philip Rhinelander Ballard of the British West Indies and the late Mrs. Adelaide Kip Rhine-ment, now serving on the western lander and is a nephew of T. J. Oakley he wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Rickert of States Marine Corps in May, is an expert golfer.

$140,000 Raised for Armenians. Sundays mass meeting at the Hippo-drome secured for the Armenian and Syrian relief funds more than $100,000. according to an announcement made yes-terday by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief. The 3,000 collectors who solicited funds in the streets added $40,000 to the fund. The committee said that it hoped $35 000,000 this winter to aid the 2,500.

DR. FRANCIS LE ROY SATTERLEE

Dr. Francis Le Roy Satterlee, for fifty years professor of physics, chemistry and metallurgy at the New York College of Bentistry and one of the oldest prac-tising physicians in New York, died yes-oddled the suspices of the Prace-American and an answering and to this country by the same society last man season. He was heard here at that time the sum relation that the sum relation that the sum relation that the sum services of the Prace-American and an answering the sum of the country by the same society last man season. He was heard here at that time the sum relation that the sum services in several rectals and won for himself as facture and to this country by the same society last man season. He was heard here at that time the sum relation that the sum relation that the sum of the country by the same society last man season. He was heard here at that time the sum relation that the sum of the country by the same society last man season. He was heard here at that time the sum relation that the sum relation that the sum of the country by the same society last of the co ford county.

John G. Agar, W. Bourke Cockran, Clarence H. Mackay, Victor J. Dowling, Myles Tierney, Dr. James J. Walsh, Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet, Eugene A. Phillomas Addis Eugene A. Phillomas Addis Eugene A. Phill DEAD OF APOPLEXY

Catholic Lecturer and Economist Held Several Consular Posts.

Dr. James C. Monaghan, college professor and Catholic lecturer and prominent as an authority on politics and economics, whom President Wilson ap-pointed Consul-General to Januaica in 1914, died yesterday of apoplexy at his home 764 Willoughby avenue, Brook-lyn. It was the third stroke he had had within a year,

Dr. Monaghan was born in Hoston October 11, 1857, the sen of James C October 11, 1557, the son of James Monaghan and Mary Brown. When was 8 years old he went to work in the mills as a belshin boy, and during his spare moments he studied. In his twen-ty-second year, with the money he saved. he attended Mowring's Academy, where the Christian Brothers prepared htm for Brown University. He was graduated from that university in 1885. When Grover Cleveland was a Presi-

Many Honor Michael F. Tohin. dential candidate Dr. Monaghan stumped the country for him, and was appointed to a consular post at Manuheim, tieryears later President Roosevelt, seeking a man for a consular post in the Depart-ment of Commerce, selected Dr. Mona-ghan. Later he resigned to fill the chair of economics and history in Notre Dame

In March, 1914, President Wilson ap-cointed him to the consular post at the pointed him to the consular post at the island of Jamaica. In 1968 Dr. Monsannounced the engagement of their ghan received the Lactare medal from the daughter, Miss Helen G. Alexander, to Notre Dame University in recognition of Philip Kip Rhinelander of this city. Both his services to the country in relation to

is a niece of Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Edgar. Mr. Rhinelander, who was a student at Harvard, left his studies to join the National Army, and he is now at Camp Wadsworth Spartanburg. S. C. He is the eldest son of Philip Rhinelander.

GEORGE E. LANGAN.

George E. Langan, postmaster of Broadway, Flushing, have announced Keyport, N. J., and for several years the engagement of their daughter, Miss prominent in Democratic politics of Dorothy Allen Rickert, to Morel Peck Monmouth county, N. J., died yesterday Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. In his home. His funeral will be held Lewis of 262 Myrtle avenue. Flushing. Thursday morning in St. Joseph's Ro-Mr. Lewis, who enlisted in the United man Catholic Church at Keyport, of States Marine Corps in May, is an ex-be in St. Joseph's Cemetery. Mr. Langan was a resident of Keypon for fifty years, and was widely known in that section of New Jersey. He was appointed postmaster in 1915. He leaves three brothers, the Rev. Francis Xavier Langan, the Rev. James L. Langan, John P. Langan, S. J., and three sisters, Sister Mary Vincent of Visitation, Mrs. Mary C. Donahue and Miss Annie T. Langan, and his mother, Mrs. Matthew

MRS. ELLEN M. SUYDAM.

Mrs. Eilen M. Suydam, wife of John Suydam of 218 Gates avenue, Brooklyn, and a member of an old Dutch family died Saturday in her seventy-fifth year She was born in the old town of New Utrecht the daughter of the late Teunis and Ellen Van Nuyse Bergen. She was a member of the Colonial Daughters and the Daughters of the Revolution. She leaves her husband and the following not wait, but plant bulbs immediately before the ground freezes up solid.

PLANT NOW FOR

BARWIN TULIPS

Separate Colors. Named Varieties:
Pride of Hariem, bright rise and purple—dox., 40c; per 100, 82.40.

Mime. Kreinge, deep rise, paler at edges—dox., 35c; per 100, 82.40.

Bartigon, they crimson scarlet—dox., 50c; 100, 83.50.
Plambeau, beilliant rosy scarlet—dox., 46c; 100, 81.00.
Gretchen, pale flesh pink—dox.85c; 100 81.90.
Painted Lady, creamy white and hellotrope—dox., 40c; per 100, 82.60.
Painted Lady, creamy white and hellotrope—dox., 40c; per 100, 82.60.
Sultan, deep maroon black—dox., 30c; per 100, 82.60.
SPLENDID MINTURE—choice, dox., 30c; per 100, 81.50.

SPLENDID MINTURE—choice, dox., 30c; per 100, 81.50.

Early Tulips, Double Tulips, etc. See Catalogue.

EARLY Tulips, Double Tulips, etc. See Catalogue.

FREE 40 EMPEROR NARCISSUS of extra size and quality free with orders amounting to $5, 100 Emperor Narcissus free with $10 orders or 50 BYACINTHS, asserted, extra size bulbs.

56-page Illustrated Autumn Catalogue mailed FREE.

ALL BULBS for indoor Winter flowering or outdoor Spring flowering are now ready and should be planted immediately.

VAUGHAN'S SEED STORE, BARCLAY STREET.

"The Champogne of Table Water! SENT YOU FROM FRANCE

Sold Everywhere